

Module description:	Module Objectives: At the end of this module the student will be able to:	Teaching Strategy	Faculty	In Class Activities	Out of Class Assignment
Module 1					To be completed before:
27/10/17 Introduction to Multi-disciplinary approach to EOL	Discuss the basic concepts of EOL patient care through the lifespan, including the medical, nursing, psychological and social work aspects of EOL care	Frontal Lecture, Overview of course aim and objectives, content and assignments	1. Dr. Michal Braun: Approach to End-of-Life care. 2. Prof. Dorith Shaham		before Module 1 Completion of online interactive module on the basic concepts of EOL and palliative care. (including quiz)
		Small Group discussion	Course Moderators	Exposure to EOL through trigger film/ personal story	before Module 2 Field work: Interviews with multidisciplinary team members (physician, nurse, social worker) on their roles in caring for EOL patients in pairs of students each (medical, nursing and social work students)
Module 2					To be completed before Module 3
10/11/17 Cultural views of EOL	Recognize the implications of culture on EOL	Frontal Lecture/Panel	1. Dr. Zohar Gazit. 2. Kasem Badarne, Rabbi Klein Moshe, David M. Neuhaus SJ		Completion of online interactive module on the Dying Patient Law (including quiz)
		Small group discussion	Course Moderators	Student presentations of interviews of multidisciplinary team members (Assignment from Module 1)

Module description:	Module Objectives: At the end of this module the student will be able to:	Teaching Strategy	Faculty	In Class Activities	Out of Class Assignment
Module 3					To be completed after Module 3
24/11/17 The Dying Patient Law	Interpret the principle components of the Israel Dying Patient Law (2005) and their clinical application	Frontal Lecture: Implementation of the Dying Patient Law in clinical practice Small Group discussions	1. Advocate Dr. Ofra Golan 2. Prof. Ben-Yehuda Arie Course Moderators	Case discussions on application of the Dying Patient Law	Field work: Interviews with authors, policy makers, professionals and lay public on the Dying Patient Law

Module description:	Module Objectives: At the end of this module the student will be able to:	Teaching Strategy	Faculty	In Class Activities	Out of Class Assignment
Module 5					To be completed by the end of the course
22/12/17 Spiritual care	Discuss the interface between spiritual and EOL patient care	Frontal Lecture Small Group discussion	Prof. Nathan Cherney, Rachel Ettun Course Moderators	Literature/ poetry discussion Prof. Hamutal Bar-Yosef Dr. Arbel-Alon Sagit Dr. Moti Mushkat	Encounters with spiritual care providers.

Module description:	Module Objectives: At the end of this module the student will be able to:	Teaching Strategy	Faculty	In Class Activities	Out of Class Assignment
Module 6					To be completed by the end of the course
5/1/18 The perspective and experience of patients at EOL	Evaluate the perspective and experience of patients at EOL	Frontal Lecture: Psychological processes of EOL patients	Dr. Shlomit Perry (ICA), Family member (non-Oncology)		Complete course assignments.
		Small Group discussions	Course Moderators	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why is it so difficult to talk about EOL? 2. Why is it so difficult to be in the situation with the patient? 3. Hope vs truth-telling (who decides what we talk about) 4. What do people at EOL need? How can team-work make it easier?
Module 7
19/1/18 Course conclusion	Integrate the multi-disciplinary aspects of EOL care for the patient, family and the health care team	Frontal Lecture	Prof. Ben-Yehuda Dina		Course summary
		Small Group discussions	Course Moderators		